

1919.

Memorandum for Report.

Losses and Disasters.

Extract from letter of May 21, from Warden L. G. Wingard.

Arrival of ships.-

The first cannery vessel to enter the Bay and drop anchor was the Star of Zealand, belonging to the Alaska P. She was followed the following day, the sixth, by the Centennial belonging to the same company. The A. B. Coburn belonging to Libby McNeill and Libby was third arriving the 10th, until by May 13th thirteen ships lay at anchor off the Kvichak and Naknek rivers. One ship, the Premier, a three masted schooner belonging to the Alaska Packers was wrecked about forty miles East of Unimak Pass on the Pacific side. She carried lumber for Ugashik and was a total wreck, only the crew being saved.